General regulation of the AMF

Article 319-23 into force from 03 January 2018 to 17 May 2020

DISCLAIMER: Information boxes have been inserted within the General Regulation. They allow for a direct access to the relevant European regulations on the subject matter.

The user will be redirected to the European regulations as initially published in the Official Journal of the European Union and to the subsequent corrigenda, if any. The AMF does not guarantee the completeness of the redirections to these European regulations and corrigenda.

The boxes are located at the most relevant level of the GRAMF depending on the provision of the EU regulations to which they refer (Book, Title, Chapter, Section, etc.).

This additional material is provided for information purposes only and does not constitute a regulatory instrument. The AMF shall not be held liable or responsible for any harm resulting directly or indirectly from the provision or the use of these information boxes.

Article 319-23

At the request of the AMF, asset management companies shall disclose to the AMF how they voted, or whether they abstained from voting, on each resolution and the reasons for those votes or abstentions.

To any AIF unit or shareholder who so requests, asset management companies shall make disclosures available relating to the exercise of voting rights on each resolution submitted to the general meeting of an issuer, whenever the number of that issuer's securities held by the AIF managed by the asset management company reaches or exceeds the holding threshold specified in the voting policy document referred to in Article 319-21.

These disclosures must be available for viewing at the registered office of the asset management company and on its website.
