DISCLAIMER : Information boxes have been inserted within the General Regulation. They allow for a direct access to the relevant European regulations on the subject matter.

The user will be redirected to the European regulations as initially published in the Official Journal of the European Union and to the subsequent corrigenda, if any. The AMF does not guarantee the completeness of the redirections to these European regulations and corrigenda.

The boxes are located at the most relevant level of the GRAMF depending on the provision of the EU regulations to which they refer (Book, Title, Chapter, Section, etc.).

This additional material is provided for information purposes only and does not constitute a regulatory instrument. The AMF shall not be held liable or responsible for any harm resulting directly or indirectly from the provision or the use of these information boxes.

Article 321-146

In order to establish the systems referred to in Article 321-143, the portfolio asset management company shall compile and periodically update a classification of the money laundering and terrorist financing risks to which it is exposed in the course of its business. It shall assess its exposure to these risks according, in particular, to the nature of the products offered, the investment services provided or the collective management activity, the trading conditions proposed, the distribution channels used, the characteristics of the clients and the country or territory of origin or destination of the funds.

To this end, the recommendations of the European Commission, the national risk analysis and the information provided in the Minister of the Economy's orders are taken into account.

To this end, the recommendations of the European Commission, the risk factors referred to in Annexes II and III of the Directive (EU) 2015/849 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2015, and the national risk analysis and information provided in the Minister for the Economy's orders are taken into account.
