General regulation of the AMF

Article 322-18 into force since 19 April 2013

DISCLAIMER : Information boxes have been inserted within the General Regulation. They allow for a direct access to the relevant European regulations on the subject matter.

The user will be redirected to the European regulations as initially published in the Official Journal of the European Union and to the subsequent corrigenda, if any. The AMF does not guarantee the completeness of the redirections to these European regulations and corrigenda.

The boxes are located at the most relevant level of the GRAMF depending on the provision of the EU regulations to which they refer (Book, Title, Chapter, Section, etc.).

This additional material is provided for information purposes only and does not constitute a regulatory instrument. The AMF shall not be held liable or responsible for any harm resulting directly or indirectly from the provision or the use of these information boxes.

Article 322-18

The custody account-keeper shall establish and keep operational business continuity plans in order to guarantee, in the event of the interruption of its systems and procedures, the safeguarding of its data and essential functions and the continuity of its custody account-keeping activities or, where this is impossible, in order to enable the recovery as quickly as possible of this data and these functions and the restarting of its activities as quickly as possible.
