General regulation of the AMF

Article 322-32 into force since 19 April 2013

DISCLAIMER : Information boxes have been inserted within the General Regulation. They allow for a direct access to the relevant European regulations on the subject matter.

The user will be redirected to the European regulations as initially published in the Official Journal of the European Union and to the subsequent corrigenda, if any. The AMF does not guarantee the completeness of the redirections to these European regulations and corrigenda.

The boxes are located at the most relevant level of the GRAMF depending on the provision of the EU regulations to which they refer (Book, Title, Chapter, Section, etc.).

This additional material is provided for information purposes only and does not constitute a regulatory instrument. The AMF shall not be held liable or responsible for any harm resulting directly or indirectly from the provision or the use of these information boxes.

Article 322-32

The custody account-keeper shall record the normal dates on which the receipt or delivery of the financial securities is anticipated. This recording shall take account of the specificities of cross-border operations.

The custody account-keeper shall organise its procedures in such a way as to continuously monitor suspense items as follows:

- The report on financial security and cash suspense items, for all the financial securities concerned, shall be supplied daily to the department which has operational responsibility for the delivery and settlement operations with the counter-parties;
- The suspense items mentioned in the second paragraph include:

2023-10-10

1° Operations which are not matched within the normal deadlines;

2° Deliveries and settlements which are pending, relating to operations which have been matched with the counter- parties and for which the normal settlement dates have been exceeded;

- The suspense items are monitored by counter-party and by the date of delivery which was foreseen at the outset;
- In addition, the agreement of the counter-parties concerning the identified suspense items, both in financial securities and in cash, shall be regularly sought.
