DISCLAIMER : Information boxes have been inserted within the General Regulation. They allow for a direct access to the relevant European regulations on the subject matter.

The user will be redirected to the European regulations as initially published in the Official Journal of the European Union and to the subsequent corrigenda, if any. The AMF does not guarantee the completeness of the redirections to these European regulations and corrigenda.

The boxes are located at the most relevant level of the GRAMF depending on the provision of the EU regulations to which they refer (Book, Title, Chapter, Section, etc.).

This additional material is provided for information purposes only and does not constitute a regulatory instrument. The AMF shall not be held liable or responsible for any harm resulting directly or indirectly from the provision or the use of these information boxes.

Article 323-2

As regards the custody of financial instruments and pursuant to Article L. 214-10-5, II, 1 of the Monetary and Financial Code, the depositary shall ensure that all financial instruments that can be registered in a financial instruments account opened in the depositary's books are registered in the depositary's books within segregated accounts in accordance with the principles set out in Article 312-6, opened in the name of the UCITS or the management company acting on behalf of the UCITS, so that they can be clearly identified as belonging to the UCITS at all times.

For the purposes of record keeping of other assets by the depositary, and pursuant to Article L. 214-10-5, II, 2 of the Monetary and Financial Code, the depositary shall verify the ownership by the UCITS or by the asset management company of such assets based on information or documents provided by the UCITS or by the asset management company and, where available, on external evidence.
