Article 323-40-1 into force since 23 April 2021

DISCLAIMER: Information boxes have been inserted within the General Regulation. They allow for a direct access to the relevant European regulations on the subject matter.

The user will be redirected to the European regulations as initially published in the Official Journal of the European Union and to the subsequent corrigenda, if any. The AMF does not guarantee the completeness of the redirections to these European regulations and corrigenda.

The boxes are located at the most relevant level of the GRAMF depending on the provision of the EU regulations to which they refer (Book, Title, Chapter, Section, etc.).

This additional material is provided for information purposes only and does not constitute a regulatory instrument. The AMF shall not be held liable or responsible for any harm resulting directly or indirectly from the provision or the use of these information boxes.

Article 323-40-1

Pursuant to Article L. 621-8-4 of the Monetary and Financial Code, and without prejudice to the disclosure requirements applicable to management companies, investment management companies, AIFs and depositaries under the same article, the depositary shall provide the AMF on a daily basis, at the latter's request, with information relating to the non-compliance by the asset management company with investment and asset structure rules laid down by legal and regulatory provisions and the investor disclosure documents for the AIFs for which it is the depositary, latest two days after the date on which such non-compliance is noted.
