

Book III - Service providers

Title II - Other service providers

Chapter V - Financial investment advisers

General regulation of the AMF

Article 325-1-A into force from 08 June 2018 to 07 February 2020

DISCLAIMER : Information boxes have been inserted within the General Regulation. They allow for a direct access to the relevant European regulations on the subject matter.

The user will be redirected to the European regulations as initially published in the Official Journal of the European Union and to the subsequent corrigenda, if any. The AMF does not guarantee the completeness of the redirections to these European regulations and corrigenda.

The boxes are located at the most relevant level of the GRAMF depending on the provision of the EU regulations to which they refer (Book, Title, Chapter, Section, etc.).

This additional material is provided for information purposes only and does not constitute a regulatory instrument. The AMF shall not be held liable or responsible for any harm resulting directly or indirectly from the provision or the use of these information boxes.

Article 325-1-A

I. - For the purposes of this Chapter, a “durable medium” is an instrument allowing:

- 1 • A client to store information addressed personally to that client in a way that affords easy access for future reference for a period of time adequate for the purposes of the information; and
- 2 • Which allows the unchanged reproduction of the information stored.

II. - Where information has to be provided by a financial investment adviser on a durable medium, this information may be published on a durable medium other than paper only if:

- 1 • The provision of that information in that medium is appropriate to the context in which the business between the financial investment adviser and the client is, or is to be, carried on; and
- 2 • The person to whom the information is to be provided, when offered the choice between information on paper or in that other durable medium, specifically chooses the provision of the information in that other medium.
