General regulation of the AMF

Article 422-216 into force since 21 December 2013

DISCLAIMER : Information boxes have been inserted within the General Regulation. They allow for a direct access to the relevant European regulations on the subject matter.
The user will be redirected to the European regulations as initially published in the Official Journal of the European Union and to the subsequent corrigenda, if any. The AMF does not guarantee the completeness of the redirections to these European regulations and corrigenda.
The boxes are located at the most relevant level of the GRAMF depending on the provision of the EU regulations to which they refer (Book, Title, Chapter, Section, etc.).
This additional material is provided for information purposes only and does not constitute a regulatory instrument. The AMF shall not be held liable or responsible for any harm resulting directly or indirectly from the provision or the use of these information boxes.

Article 422-216

Intermediaries shall implement any and all means necessary to minimise the following periods:

1 • The time between orders being received and passed on

2 • The time taken to inform their clients.

They shall supply proof of receipt of orders and of them being passed on to clients and the management company.

Version into force since 21 December 2013
