General regulation of the AMF

Article 423-31 into force since 21 December 2013

DISCLAIMER : Information boxes have been inserted within the General Regulation. They allow for a direct access to the relevant European regulations on the subject matter.

The user will be redirected to the European regulations as initially published in the Official Journal of the European Union and to the subsequent corrigenda, if any. The AMF does not guarantee the completeness of the redirections to these European regulations and corrigenda.

The boxes are located at the most relevant level of the GRAMF depending on the provision of the EU regulations to which they refer (Book, Title, Chapter, Section, etc.).

This additional material is provided for information purposes only and does not constitute a regulatory instrument. The AMF shall not be held liable or responsible for any harm resulting directly or indirectly from the provision or the use of these information boxes.

Article 423-31

A prospectus shall be given to investors before any subscriptions or purchases of units or shares in a contractual fund are made.

Investors shall give written acknowledgement, when making the first subscription or purchase, that they have been warned that the subscription or purchase of units or shares in the professional specialised fund, made directly or through an intermediary, is reserved for the investors referred to Article 423-27.

The prospectus of the professional specialised fund as well as the most recent periodic documents shall be available on a simple written request by the holder within one week of receipt of the request. At the holder's option, these documents shall be able to be sent electronically.
