Article 560-7 bis into force from 29 October 2018 to 10 September 2019

DISCLAIMER : Information boxes have been inserted within the General Regulation. They allow for a direct access to the relevant European regulations on the subject matter.

The user will be redirected to the European regulations as initially published in the Official Journal of the European Union and to the subsequent corrigenda, if any. The AMF does not guarantee the completeness of the redirections to these European regulations and corrigenda.

The boxes are located at the most relevant level of the GRAMF depending on the provision of the EU regulations to which they refer (Book, Title, Chapter, Section, etc.).

This additional material is provided for information purposes only and does not constitute a regulatory instrument. The AMF shall not be held liable or responsible for any harm resulting directly or indirectly from the provision or the use of these information boxes.

Article 560-7 bis

Relations between the central depositary and the legal entities to whom it provides access or a service shall be governed by an agreement.

In particular such agreements shall oblige the legal entities concerned to:

- 1 • Respond to any request for information from the central depositary;
- 2 • Comply with the central depositary's operating rules at all times;
- 3 • Rectify any irregularity at the request of the central depositary if the latter finds the member to be in breach of its rules, of current regulations or of conditions of the agreement.
