

Book VII - Token Issuers and Digital Assets Services Providers

Title I - Initial coin offering

Chapter II - Approval of the information document

Section 1 - Filing and approval of the information document

Sub-section 5 - Examination of the information document

General regulation of the AMF

Article 712-8 into force since 05 June 2019

DISCLAIMER : Information boxes have been inserted within the General Regulation. They allow for a direct access to the relevant European regulations on the subject matter.

The user will be redirected to the European regulations as initially published in the Official Journal of the European Union and to the subsequent corrigenda, if any. The AMF does not guarantee the completeness of the redirections to these European regulations and corrigenda.

The boxes are located at the most relevant level of the GRAMF depending on the provision of the EU regulations to which they refer (Book, Title, Chapter, Section, etc.).

This additional material is provided for information purposes only and does not constitute a regulatory instrument. The AMF shall not be held liable or responsible for any harm resulting directly or indirectly from the provision or the use of these information boxes.

Article 712-8

A draft information document shall be filed with the AMF by the token issuer or by any person acting on behalf of said issuer, at least twenty working days before the scheduled date for obtaining the approval requested for the token offering in question.

When filing this document, the documentation needed to examine the application must also be submitted to the AMF.

The AMF shall electronically acknowledge receipt of the initial application for approval of an information document as soon as possible, and within two working days after receiving the application.

The AMF shall give notice of its approval within twenty working days following acknowledgement of receipt of the application.

During its examination of the application, when the AMF indicates that the documentation is incomplete or that additional information must be included in the information document, the time limit of twenty working days shall commence only when the AMF has received the additional information requested.

↘ Version into force since 5 June 2019