Title I - Initial coin offering

Chapter III - Dissemination of the information document and marketing material

Section 1 - Dissemination of the information document

General regulation of the AMF

Article 713-1 into force since 05 June 2019

DISCLAIMER : Information boxes have been inserted within the General Regulation. They allow for a direct access to the relevant European regulations on the subject matter.

The user will be redirected to the European regulations as initially published in the Official Journal of the European Union and to the subsequent corrigenda, if any. The AMF does not guarantee the completeness of the redirections to these European regulations and corrigenda.

The boxes are located at the most relevant level of the GRAMF depending on the provision of the EU regulations to which they refer (Book, Title, Chapter, Section, etc.).

This additional material is provided for information purposes only and does not constitute a regulatory instrument. The AMF shall not be held liable or responsible for any harm resulting directly or indirectly from the provision or the use of these information boxes.

Article 713-1

Once the approval has been issued, the information document shall be made available to the public by the token issuer no later than the start of the initial coin offering.

The information document must be effectively disseminated by online posting on the token issuer's website.

Once the approval has been issued, the information document shall be filed with the AMF within two working days. The AMF shall publish it on its website.
