The Autorité des marchés financiers (AMF) warns the public against the company and the website Vanilla Golden Trade

The AMF is issuing a public warning regarding the activities of Vanilla Golden Trade, which offers the opportunity to invest shares in order to finance the company's vanilla production and export business.

It appears that this company, which seems to offer investments in France without authorization to do so, has not responded to the AMF requests. The regulator recommends that investors use extreme caution.

The AMF reminds investors and individuals to follow these safety guidelines before making any investment:

- no advertising materials should make you overlook the fact that high returns always involve high risk;
- learn as much as you can about the company or intermediary trying to sell you a product (authorization/certification, company history, location of head offices, etc.);
- only invest in a product you understand;
- ask yourself how, and by whom, the purchase price or selling price of the advertised product is set, and find out the precise terms and timeline for selling the product, especially in cases where the product invests in an asset class with low liquidity.

All the websites and/or entities offering investments without authorisation in France are now collected on a single table. This table is updated regularly and is presented in alphabetic order.

About the AMF

The AMF is an independent public authority responsible for ensuring that savings invested in financial products are protected and that investors are provided with adequate information. The AMF also supervises the orderly operations of markets.
