The AMF joins forces with regulators worldwide to promote financial education and investor protection

For the third year running, the Autorité des Marchés Financiers is taking part in World Investor Week, a week-long event promoted by the International Organisation of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) from 30 September to 6 October 2019.

Launched in 2017 by IOSCO, World Investor Week gives national regulators the opportunity to promote initiatives in financial education and investor protection. This year, a total of 87 jurisdictions represented by their regulatory authorities, as well as eight regional or international organisations, will be coming together to promote the interests of investors.

AMF actions

In 2019, the Autorité des Marchés Financiers has developed new applications and content to support and inform investors. These initiatives include the Following:

- Launch of the “AMF Protect Epargne” application, which makes it easy to find an unauthorised company in the AMF’s black list, to determine in a few clicks the potential risk of a scam of an investment offer, to be kept informed of AMF warnings and to enter into contact with AMF Epargne Info Service;
