The AMF announces the appointment of Jessica Reyes as Director of the Asset Management Regulation Division

Jessica Reyes, currently Senior Policy Officer at the Regulatory Policy and International Affairs Directorate, has been appointed as of March 1st, 2022 Director of the Asset Management Regulation Division in the same Directorate, under the responsibility of Jérôme Reboul, Managing Director and Frédéric Pelèse, Deputy Executive Director.

She started her career in London in 2004 as an analyst at State Street Bank & Trust, then at Schroders Investment Managers where she worked on fund valuation. In 2008, she joined the wealth management teams at UBS Wealth Management as an Associate Director, and then at Morgan Stanley Wealth Management in Sydney. Returning to London in 2014, Jessica joined the Financial Conduct Authority as a Senior Inspector of large asset managers.

She joined the AMF in 2020 as a Senior Policy Advisor for the Asset Management Regulation Division within the Regulatory Policy and International Affairs Directorate.

In particular, she represents the AMF on ESMA's Investment Management Standing Committee and contributes to the work on the review of the Alternative Investment Fund

Managers Directive (AIFMD) and the European Long Term Investment Funds Regulation (ELTIF). At the international level, Jessica co-chaired the work of the Financial Stability Board (FSB) and the International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) on liquidity management by open-ended funds during the March 2020 crisis. Currently, she is a member of the FSB's technical expert group on open-ended funds.

Jessica Reyes has a degree in Business Administration and Management from the Universidad de Las Palmas de Gran Canaria. She also holds a master's degree in finance from AFI Escuela de Finanzas in Madrid.
