Risk and Trend Mapping No14 - Macrofinancial risks for 2014: Market experts' analyses

This document analyses some economic and financial risks the experts, with which the AMF has regular exchanges, see as significant in 2014. These risks are notably linked to the public debt levels in the euro area, the US monetary policy, the emerging countries, the disintermediation in finance, the financial transaction tax, the housing market in France and the high frequency trading.
