The Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF) appoints Natasha Cazenave Deputy Head of the Regulatory Policy and International Affairs Directorate

Former Head of the Asset Management Regulation Division, Natasha Cazenave has been appointed Deputy Head of the Regulatory Policy and International Affairs Directorate (DRAI) as of 2 February 2015. In her new position, she will remain actively engaged within the International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) and Financial Stability Board.

On 2 February 2015, Natasha Cazenave was appointed Deputy to the Head of the DRAI, Guillaume Eliet, whom she will be assisting in all his responsibilities. She will also continue her international work in Workstream 3 of the Financial Stability Board on shadow banking, a group of which she was recently elected co-chair, as well as in her capacity of Chair of IOSCO's Policy Committee on Investment Management.

Natasha Cazenave, 37, holds a Masters degree in banking, finance and insurance from Université Paris-Dauphine. She began her career at Ernst & Young Corporate Finance as part of the Valuation & Business Modelling team. She spent eight years working at Deminor, a consultancy firm specialised in the defence of minority shareholders rights, where she was in charge of collective actions for investors who suffered losses as a result of securities violations, and the promotion of best practices in the field of corporate governance. She joined the AMF in December 2010 as a senior policy officer in the Asset Management Regulation Division of the Regulatory Policy and International Affairs Directorate, and became deputy head of this division in November 2011, and then head in 2012. In September 2012, Natasha Cazenave was elected chair of IOSCO's Policy Committee on investment management. During that time, she has been particularly involved in the development of implementing measures for the Alternative Investment Fund Managers (AIFM) directive and in the negotiations which have led to the development of international recommendations in relation to money market funds

Franck Guiader is appointed Head of the Asset Management Regulation Division at the DRAI, replacing Natasha Cazenave. Frank Guiader holds a Magistère degree in Banking and Finance and a master's degree in Financial Techniques from Université Panthéon Assas. He is also a graduate of Neoma Business School (ESC Rouen) and lectures on European regulation at the Institut de Haute Finance (Paris I - La Sorbonne). He joined the AMF in December 2011.

Patrice Aguesse is appointed Head of the Market Regulation Division at the DRAI. Holder of a Magistère degree in Economics from Université de Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, Patrice Aguesse joined the Commission des opérations de bourse (COB) in 1995. Over the last ten years, he was notably seconded to the Committee on Economic and Monetary Affairs at the European Parliament and the Treasury in New York in order to monitor regulation of the US financial markets.
