Scientific Advisory Board Conference of the Autorité des marchés financiers- Financial Education in the Digital Era: What challenges for Savings?- Monday 20 June 2016- Programme and Conference papers

The annual AMF Scientific Advisory Board Conference took place on June 20, 2016 on the theme ' Financial education in the digital area' , in partnership with Paris School of Economics. The first session was about the impact of investor knowledge on financial decisions, evaluation of the effectiveness of financial education programs. The second session focused on the evolution of the financial behaviour of investors in connection with the new technologies, new opportunities that they represent for investors and the associated risks. These sessions were followed by a panel discussion on the challenges for regulators.
