Anne-Sophie Fior appointed Human Resources Director of the Autorité des marchés financiers

Anne-Sophie Fior was previously Deputy Human Resources Director. She succeeds Myriam Lepetit-Brière.

Anne-Sophie Fior, 43, began her career at the Kienbaum Executive Consultants recruitment firm, a German leader in human resources consultancy, where she worked for three years. She then joined the Orga Consultants consultancy firm, focusing on skills management and change management, mainly in the banking sector. In October 2004 she joined Caisse Nationale des Caisses d'Épargne as Head of the Management and National Career Path Department at Group HRD.

In December 2007 she joined the AMF as Head of Skills and Career Development, and in July 2015 was appointed as Deputy Human Resources Director.

Anne-Sophie Fior holds a Master of Administration diploma with a major in International Marketing and Finance from Hamburg University, obtained following a dual degree in Economic Science and German.
