Appointment of Maxence Delorme to the Enforcement Assistance Department (DICS) of the Autorité des Marchés Financiers

Maxence Delorme joined the AMF on 3 September 2018 as Director of the DICS and advisor to Marie-Hélène Tric, Chairman of the Enforcement Committee, having been Deputy Public Prosecutor and Head of the Economic and Financial Division at the Nanterre District Court.

A prosecutor with a postgraduate degree in European criminal law and criminal policy from University Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, Maxence Delorme started his career in 2000 at the Economic and Financial Division of the Paris District Court as a judicial assistant. After graduating from the Ecole nationale de la Magistrature, he became an investigating judge in 2004 and held the post for 3 years.

In 2007, he joined the Office of Economic and Financial Law, within the Directorate of Criminal Affairs and Pardons at the Ministry of Justice, where he handled cases concerning investment and securities fraud and financial criminal law as a Deputy Prosecutor at the Central Administration of the Department of Justice. Having been head of the Office for Criminal Law and Legal Protection within the Legal Affairs Directorate at the Ministry of the Economy, Maxence then took up the position of legal counsel to the office of the Minister for the Economy, Finance and Industry. He was responsible for competition law and policy, and monitoring legislative and regulatory activity and high-profile internal and European litigations. From 2012 to 2015, Maxence held the post of Deputy Director of Legal Affairs for the Environment and Planning Regulations at the Legal Affairs Directorate, within the General Secretariat for the Department of Ecology and Housing.

In January 2016, he was appointed Deputy Public Prosecutor and Head of the Economic and Financial Division at the Nanterre District Court.
