The AMF is changing how the English version of its General Regulation is displayed on the website

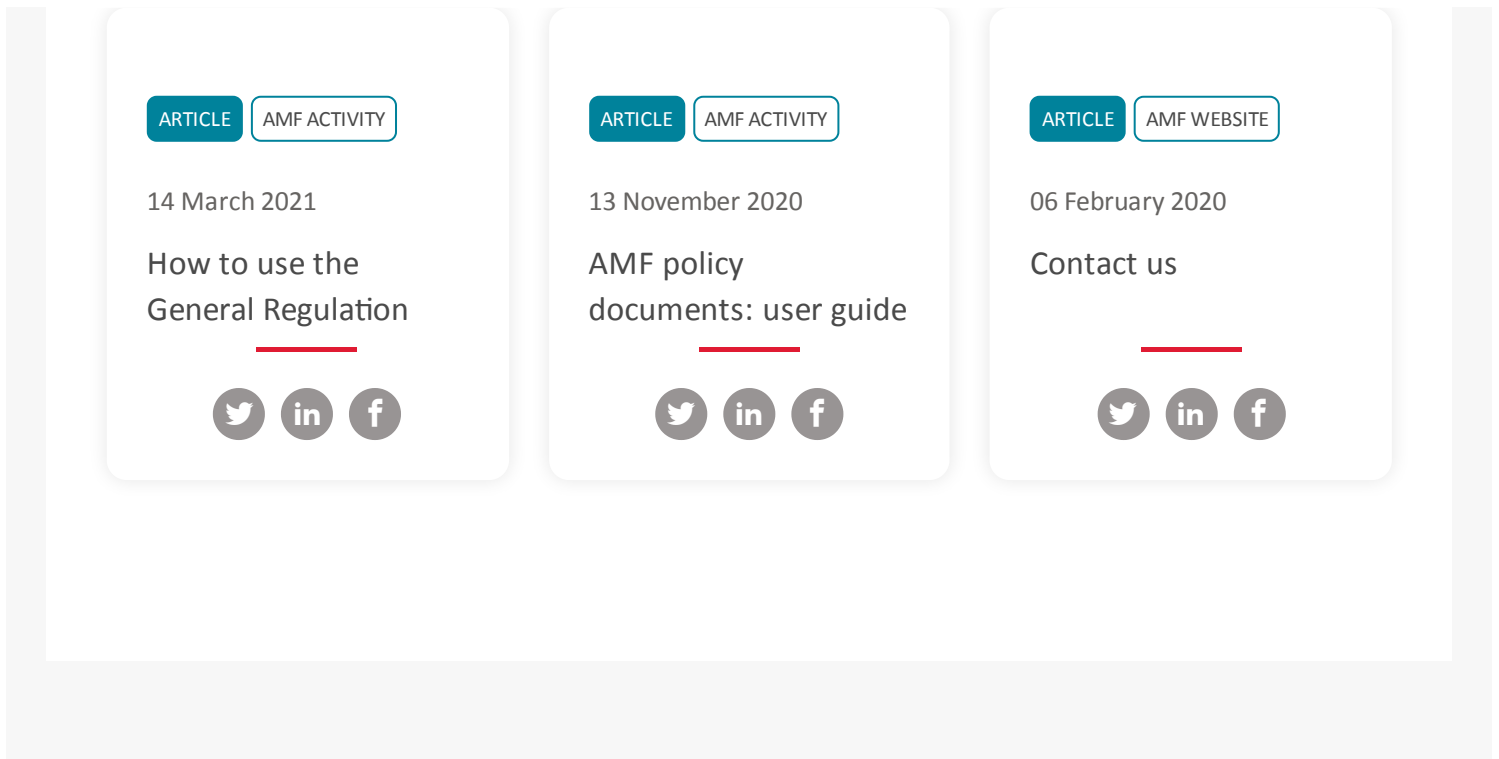

The current General Regulation (GR) and its archive are now available in PDF format in the section Regulation > Current General Regulation and archive.

Versions of the GR, prior to 1 October 2013 (OJ of 9 October 2013), are posted online in the "General Regulation archive" section. In this section you can also consult, print and download PDF versions of all previous versions of the GR.
