International influence

The AMF is actively involved in international and European work and helps to adapt the French regulatory framework. It produces studies and assessments on general stock market trends.

Our tasks

- Identify new regulatory challenges and anticipate regulatory changes
- Formulate regulatory policy positions that reflect the regulator's objectives in national and international contexts
- Ensure that the French regulator's interests and initiatives are taken into account during negotiations
- Follow up these initiatives with communication and cooperation actions, and maintain active institutional relations (ESMA, IOSCO, national competent authorities, etc.)
