The AMF announces the appointment of Didier Deleage as Deputy Head of the Asset Management Directorate

On 1st October 2019, Didier Deleage joined the AMF's Asset Management Directorate to work alongside Philippe Sourlas, Managing Director.

 Before he joined the AMF on 1st October, Didier Deleage had already had a long career in the asset management industry. He has also been a member of many industry working groups and has been a lecturer at the Conservatoire National des Arts et Métiers (CNAM) since 2001.

After graduating from the ESSEC Business School, he began his career with Coopers & Lybrand Audit, before joining Sinopia Asset Management, a quantitative asset management company, in 1997 as Head of Internal Control and then Secretary General. In 2006, he moved to HSBC Global Asset Management (France), first as Chief Operating Officer and later as Deputy CEO. Meanwhile, he was also Chairman of the Board of Directors of HSBC Epargne Entreprise. In 2014, he joined Edmond de Rothschild Asset Management, where he was appointed Global Chief Operating Officer of the Asset Management business line, before becoming Chairman of the Executive Board of Edmond de Rothschild Asset Management (France) at the beginning of 2017.

Didier Deleage was a member of the Board of Directors of the French Asset Management Association (AFG) between 2006 and 2014, a member of the “infrastructure and service provider” commission and vice-chairman of the “accounting and reporting” commission.
