

AUTORITÉ
DES MARCHÉS FINANCIERS

The Autorité des marchés financiers issues a public warning about the website www.sogevis.com

The regulator is warning the public about the activities of the website www.sogevis.com, which falsely claims to have a crowdfunding adviser (CIP) licence and abusively uses the label "Plateforme de financement participatif régulée par les autorités françaises" without the required authorization.

The website www.sogevis.com is abusively using the label "Plateforme de financement participatif régulée par les autorités françaises" (crowdfunding platform regulated by the French authorities). The use of this collective mark is reserved for legal entities meeting various regulatory requirements⁽¹⁾.

This platform does not have a legal status as a CIA or ISP authorizing it to offer investors in France subscriptions to financial securities.

The AMF recommends that investors do not take up these solicitations and do not communicate them to third parties, in any form whatsoever.

Lastly, the AMF reminds investors and individuals responsible for marketing investment products to follow these safety guidelines before making any investment:

- no advertising materials should make you overlook the fact that high returns always involve high risk;

- learn as much as you can about the company or intermediary trying to sell you a product (authorisation/certification, company history, location of head offices, registration with ORIAS, etc.);
- only invest in a product you understand;
- ask yourself how, and by whom, the purchase price or selling price of the advertised product is set, and find out the precise terms and timeline for selling the product, especially in cases where the product invests in an asset class with low liquidity.
