General regulation of the AMF

Article 422-205 into force since 22 February 2019

DISCLAIMER : Information boxes have been inserted within the General Regulation. They allow for a direct access to the relevant European regulations on the subject matter.
The user will be redirected to the European regulations as initially published in the Official Journal of the European Union and to the subsequent corrigenda, if any. The AMF does not guarantee the completeness of the redirections to these European regulations and corrigenda.
The boxes are located at the most relevant level of the GRAMF depending on the provision of the EU regulations to which they refer (Book, Title, Chapter, Section, etc.).
This additional material is provided for information purposes only and does not constitute a regulatory instrument. The AMF shall not be held liable or responsible for any harm resulting directly or indirectly from the provision or the use of these information boxes.

Article 422-205

Orders shall be recorded in a register held at the company's head office pursuant to the terms set forth in an AMF instruction, failing which they shall be null and void.

An order to sell shall be valid for a period of twelve months. Any shareholder having made or passed on an order shall be informed of the expiry date of the order beforehand. The validity period for the order may be extended for a maximum of twelve months if expressly requested by the shareholder.

Recording of orders in the register specified in the first paragraph for a variable-capital real SCPI, a variable-capital SEF or a variable-capital GFI shall constitute an appropriate measure as defined in Article L. 214-93 (II) of the Monetary and Financial Code. Application of this measure shall entail suspension of redemption requests.

Version into force since 22 February 2019
