DISCLAIMER : Information boxes have been inserted within the General Regulation. They allow for a direct access to the relevant European regulations on the subject matter.

The user will be redirected to the European regulations as initially published in the Official Journal of the European Union and to the subsequent corrigenda, if any. The AMF does not guarantee the completeness of the redirections to these European regulations and corrigenda.

The boxes are located at the most relevant level of the GRAMF depending on the provision of the EU regulations to which they refer (Book, Title, Chapter, Section, etc.).

This additional material is provided for information purposes only and does not constitute a regulatory instrument. The AMF shall not be held liable or responsible for any harm resulting directly or indirectly from the provision or the use of these information boxes.

Article 321-39

I. - The AMF has formed a Financial Skills Certification Board.

- 1 • The Financial Skills Certification Board issues opinions at the request of the AMF concerning certification of the professional knowledge of natural persons acting under the authority or on behalf of asset management companies and performing one of the functions referred to in II of Article 321-37;
- 2 • When rendering opinions, the Financial Skills Certification Board considers the possibility of establishing equivalencies with similar schemes abroad.

II. - Further to an opinion of the Financial Skills Certification Board, the AMF:

- 1 • Determines the content of the minimum knowledge to be acquired by natural persons acting under the authority or on behalf of an asset management company and performing one of the functions referred to in II of Article 321-37. It shall publish that content;
- 2 • Sees to it that the minimum knowledge content is updated;

- 3 • Determines and verifies the arrangements for the examinations that validate acquisition of the minimum knowledge;
- 4 • Certifies examinations for a two-year period within three months of the filing of applications.

This deadline shall be extended as necessary until requests for further information are met.

Certification can be renewed for a three-year period.

- 5 • The AMF shall charge an application fee when applications for certification are filed. The AMF shall determine the amount of this fee.

III. - The Financial Skills Certification Board has at least seven members:

- 1 • One AMF representative;
- 2 • At least four members named by the AMF on the basis of their professional skills, after consulting with the main professional associations representing investment services providers;
- 3 • Two independent persons named by the AMF and skilled in the fields of education or vocational training in finance.

The Financial Skills Certification Board chooses one of its members as chairman.

The members of the Financial Skills Certification Board are appointed for a renewable three-year term.

The AMF publishes the list of members.

IV. - The Financial Skills Certification Board shall draw up bylaws, approved by the AMF.

V. - Members of the Financial Skills Certification Board receive no remuneration.
