The AMF announces the appointment of Jérôme Reboul as Managing Director

Jérôme Reboul, currently at the Treasury Directorate General, will be joining the AMF on 1 July 2021 as Managing Director in charge of the Regulatory Policy and International Affairs Directorate. He will be taking over from Natasha Cazenave who left the AMF on 1 June to take up the position of Executive Director of the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA).

Jérôme Reboul, 44, began his career in June 2007 at the French Ministry for Public Works as a project manager in the Department of Urban Planning and Housing, and then in July 2008 as a chargé d'affaires at the Agence des Participations de l'État (French Government Shareholding Agency).

In August 2010, he joined the Treasury Directorate, first as Deputy Head of the Department of Banking Affairs, in charge of national and international banking regulation, before becoming Head of the Savings and Financial Markets Office in May 2013, and later, head of the Housing and Public Interest Financing Office.

In June 2016, he was appointed Deputy Director of the Shareholding, Services and Finance Directorate at the Agence des Participations de l'État. Since August 2017, he has held the position of Deputy Director in charge of banks in the Treasury Directorate.

Jérôme Reboul is an engineer, member of the Corps des Ponts, des Eaux et des Forêts, a graduate of École Normale Supérieure, Rue d'Ulm. He also has a PhD in economics from the University of Toulouse and a Master's in Public Affairs from École Nationale des Ponts et Chaussées.
