

Print from the website of the AMF

Open finance: what framework for European investors?

20 December 2022

As part of the European Commission's work on an open finance framework, the Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF) is presenting its proposals for opening up financial data on investors. For the AMF, the main purpose of this openness should be to serve the interests of investors through the provision of innovative financial services that offer them genuine added value.

 Download content

Legal information:

Head of publications: The Executive Director of AMF Communication Directorate. Contact:
Communication Directorate – Autorité des marchés financiers 17 place de la Bourse – 75082 Paris
cedex 02